

Please do not relax the rules regarding media ownership.

I urge you to return to your roots and basic mission of fostering a media that operates for and within the public interest, convenience, and necessity.

Thank you for your time and consideration.